MERLOT | Privatkeller

ORIGIN & MATURATION: These Merlot vines were planted in Ried (single vineyard, cru) SACHSENBERG in the 1980s on well drained gravelly soils high in clay. The Cistercians knew very well, that these vineyards south of Gobelsburg have been sought out for red wine historically. Training on a Lyra system lets the grapes get that extra portion of sunlight for physiological ripeness and complexity. Matured in 600-liter-barrels of regional Manhartsberg oak, the wine is only slightly filtered and could contain sediments.

CHARACTER: A finely lined cherry, berry and herbal melange offering whiffs of subtle wood spice on the nose. A medium-full body emulating an elegantly focused claret style, delivering berry notes, subtle tannins and some tobacco. A company any game dish would benefit from.

WINE LIST-DESCRIPTION: The MERLOT „Privatkeller“ is a reserve wine showing fine cassis notes in classic claret style, capturing elegant and tightly knit tannins as well as a smooth and silky finish.
