

SCHLOSS GOBELSBURG WEINKULTurerBE ÖSTERREICHs

CISTERCIEN | Rosé

ORIGIN: The valley of the Danube and its side-valleys belong to the 'Cool climate' areas of Austria. Some vineyards are even too cold for red wine making. Zweigelt, St. Laurent and Pinot Noir grapes grown in the cooler sites of Gobelsburg and Langenlois are used for this CISTERCIEN Rosé.

CHARACTER: Rosé on the estate is not seen as a secondary product to red wine, meaning we are not doing 'saignée' in order to concentrate the reds, but we are working in our vineyards in order to get the perfect Gobelsburg rosé wine type, which is closer to a white in style. We are looking for charming and elegant aromas, fresh and lean texture and a racy, profound acidity for pure drinking pleasure. The right choice as an aperitif and also great company for summerly dishes.

WINE LIST DESCRIPTION: This CISTERCIEN Rosé is sourced from Kamptal vineyards and reflects the light and crispy Austrian style of wine drinking. It has a refreshing, animating aroma paired with an easy drinking structure and a charming elegance.
