Ried STEINSETZ | Kamptal<sup>DAC</sup>

ORIGIN: Ried (single vineyard, cru) Steinsetz is situated south of the castle just outside of the village Gobelsburg and is marked by sedimentation material of the tertiary river Danube. Quarzite gravel in fist-sized pebbles was deposited during the ice ages and is covered by a thin layer of loess.

CHARACTER: The terroir of this site which is unlike others in the Kamptal, lends its Veltliners a certain light-footedness and vivacity. The vines seem to transport the ancient Danube into the grapes, giving the epicure the feeling of sitting next to streaming waters, capturing its liveliness. It is a versatile food companion, especially partnering well with shellfish, mediterranean fare and summerly dishes from the vegetable garden.

WINE LIST DESCRIPTION: Ried STEINSETZ presents us sedimentation of pebbles and stones deposited by an ancient river Danube, covered by a relatively thin layer of loess. Always elegant, precise and refined on the palate, this is a piquant Veltliner full of freshness and a serious mineral grip.
